DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1-20 are rejected as failing to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

The claim(s) are narrative in form and replete with indefinite and functional or operational language. The structure which goes to make up the device must be clearly and positively specified. The structure must be organized and correlated in such a manner as to present a complete operative device. The claim(s) must be in one sentence form only. Note the format of the claims in the patent(s) cited.

An examination of this application reveals that applicant is unfamiliar with patent prosecution procedure. While an inventor may prosecute the application, lack of skill in this field usually acts as a liability in affording the maximum protection for the invention disclosed. Applicant is advised to secure the services of a registered patent attorney or agent to prosecute the application, since the value of a patent is largely dependent upon skilled preparation and prosecution. The Office cannot aid in selecting an attorney or agent.

Art Unit: 3635

A listing of registered patent attorneys and agents is available on the USPTO Internet web site <http://www.uspto.gov> in the Site Index under "Attorney and Agent Roster." Applicants may also obtain a list of registered patent attorneys and agents located in their area by writing to the Mail Stop OED, Director of the U. S. Patent and Trademark Office, PO Box 1450, Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

The claims throughout are lacking antecedent basis. Examples of such are in claims 6 and 12, which recite the limitation "the constructive expansions" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in these claims.

Claims 7 and 19 recite the limitation "the structural expansion" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in these claims. The applicant must correct the lack of antecedent basis throughout the claims.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1, 8 and 14 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory double patenting over copending Application No. 10/032,735. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the referenced copending application and would be covered by any patent granted on that copending application since the referenced copending application and the instant application are claiming common subject matter.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant would be prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application in the other copending application. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

Claims 1, 8 and 14 are substantially similar to claims 1, 2, 17 and 18 of '735.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3-8, 10-14 and 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 2,818,607 to Maissen.

Regarding claims 1, 8, 14, Maissen discloses a residential building (fig. 1; column 2, lines 52-55) having a garage, the garage comprising an enclosure (figs. 1 & 2) located generally central to the building (fig. 1), the garage expands by intrusion (fig. 2) and includes a flare shaped area (internal parking spaces 2, area of vehicle near 6 and area of vehicle near 7 in fig. 2) enabling parking vehicles at various angles relative to each other and to the garage door (area of 6). This configuration allows for a large number of cars to park at different angles relative to each other and permit the entrance of no more than one vehicle simultaneously. Also disclosed is a driveway portion with a substantial triangular shape (near 6 & 7).

Regarding claims 3, 16, Maissen discloses the garage structure as inherently capable of being constructed in a manner that moves the longitudinal axis of the house.

Regarding claims 4, 5, 10, 11, 17, 18, Maissen discloses the garage and its components as inherently capable of having the walls and doors constructed in desired dimensions and in perpendicular aligned relationship to the parked vehicles.

Art Unit: 3635

Regarding claims 6, 7, 12, 19, Maissen discloses the garage structure as inherently capable of comprising notched, stepped, or irregular portions.

Regarding claim 20, Maissen discloses the use of stairs (fig. 3) for accessing the garage.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2, 9 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 2,818,607 to Maissen.

Regarding claims 2, 9 and 15, Maissen does not particularly claim specific features of the entrance door to the garage such as pivoting as claimed by the applicant. Applicant fails to show criticality for specifically claimed orientation of the door to open, therefore it would have been an obvious design choice to use the door opening orientation, pivoting, such as specified in these claims since pivoting is a standard means for doors along with rolling, and retracting.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

The cited patents listed on the included form PTO-892 further show the state of the art with respect to garages in general.
